Benjamin “Ben” King is a seasoned attorney with over 11 years of experience, specializing in Real Estate, Business, Estate Planning and Creditor’s Rights.

Ben earned his law degree from the University of St. Thomas School of Law. He has become well-versed in navigating the complexities of real estate transactions, business law, estate planning and creditor’s rights, earning the trust of his clients through his dedication and proficiency.

Beyond his professional pursuits, Ben is deeply engaged in his community. He serves on the board of several organizations, including Families First, History Center of Olmsted County and Zumbro Valley Health Center. His commitment to community service underscores his belief in giving back and making a positive impact on the lives of others.

In addition to his board service, Ben is an active member of the Rochester Area Chamber of Commerce, contributing his legal expertise to support local businesses and promote economic growth in the region. His involvement in these organizations reflects his commitment to building a vibrant and thriving community.

When he’s not immersed in the legal world or community activities, Ben enjoys spending quality time with family and friends. His love for golf and the art of crafting his own pizzas are some of his favorite pastimes.
